

Rolling Stone Scholarship Terms and Conditions

1. Introduction

Southern Cross University (“SCU”) administers Rolling Stone Scholarship (“Scholarship”). The Rolling Stone Scholarship is awarded to a 1st year Bachelor of Contemporary Music Student who shows a high standard of creativity and a passion for contemporary music. The recipient must be an Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident, commencing a Bachelor of Contemporary Music and enrolled Full Time, on campus.

The Scholarship is awarded on the basis of the Scholarship Criteria and the Student has been selected by the University as a recipient of the Scholarship.

The Student agrees that as a condition of the award of the Scholarship to the Student, the Student will comply with the set out Terms and Conditions.

terminate or suspend payment of the Scholarship Funds by written notice to the Student.

If the Student withdraws from enrolment in the Course or if the Scholarship is terminated on or before the “withdrawal without failure” date of any session of the Course, the Student must repay to the University the Scholarship Funds paid for that session.

The obligation in previous clauses will survive the expiration or termination of the Scholarship and the Student’s enrolment at the University.

8. Progress Reports

The Student consents to the University providing reports on the Student’s academic progress to the donor each session for the duration of the Scholarship.

The Student will provide all reasonable information and assistance required by the University to enable the progress reports to be provided to the Scholarship Donor.

9. Consent to Use Image, Name or Testimonial

In accordance with National and State privacy legislation , including the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the Student consents to the University’s request, and permits the University to:

- a) use and Publish the name and/or testimonial of the Student; and
- b) take, keep, store, use and Publish photographs of the Student, with or without the name of the Student;
- c) use any information/date referred to in (a) and (b) above for the purposes of promoting the University;

for up to five years from the date of first publication for the purpose of promoting the Rising Stars Scholarship Program and the University generally.
